press release, 31.10.2017

Deodato Arte Gallery has two venues in Milan.

Deodato Arte gallery is happy to announce the opening of a new venue in via Nerino 2, in the heart of Milan, close to the historical venue in via Santa Marta 6. The grand opening on Tuesday, 21 November at 6.30pm will include a performance by Tomoko Nagao, an artist who for years now has been collaborating with the gallery. On this occasion, she will make one of her Japan Pop works on the surface of a piano.

The venue in via Nerino offers to the public the possibility of admiring live the works from the large collection of Deodato Arte gallery in their entirety, from the paintings to the sculptures, from the photographs to the graphic works and design objects, which are virtually visible already from the website www.deodato.com. Since the beginning, the website has been characterized by an exclusive e-commerce service, dedicated to all those passionate for art.
Great masters such as Marc Chagall, Christo, Keith Haring, Damien Hirst, Joan Miró, Takashi Murakami, Pablo Picasso, Mimmo Rotella, and Andy Warhol, are accompanied by contemporary artists such as Arman, Mr. Brainwash, Giovanna Fra, Maurizio Galimberti, Marco Lodola, José Molina, Tomoko Nagao and many more. They are all important names in the art field presented to the public by the gallery, which highlights the concept of accessibility, meant both as affordable for all budgets and as attentive to the needs of its clients.

Deodato Arte is a reality in continuous evolution. It was born in 2010, and since then has created synergies with museums, taking part in national and international fairs, and has made art prints, with special attention to the worlds of Japan Pop and Urban Art. The gallery works in the art world using an innovative approach, through different channels, from the conception to the circulation of “Deodato Art Magazine” dedicated to collectors, and its widespread presence in the multimedia world.

The opening of the new space in Milan in via Nerino allows Deodato Arte to enhance its cultural programme, next to the busy schedule of solo and group exhibitions at the venue in via Santa Marta, where Joan Miró has recently been hosted.

The grand opening of the venue starts the Christmas period from 21 November to 24 December with special opening times for both venues in Milan to the public seven days a week.
