press release, 09.05.2019

Exceptional debut in Milan for the Gaga Symphony Orchestra at the Teatro Dal Verme with the show DANCERS IN CONCERT on stage on Tuesday, May 14th at 9pm.

The ensemble, composed of over 60 young musicians directed by Simone Tonin, proposes a new reading in a symphonic way of the most beautiful pop and rock hits of all time, in addition to the latest record releases: from the Italian songs to the myths of rock, from the theme songs of the Eighties and Nineties to the great operatic and symphonic repertoire, from the love ballads that made history to the successes of the moment.

To enrich the varied musical program the performances of the highest level of the Principal dancers Martina Arduino and Claudio Coviello and of the Soloists Vittoria Valerio and Marco Agostino of the Teatro alla Scala called to interpret two particularly involving moments of the concert, the medleys dedicated to pop / rock ballads and Italian songs, with the new choreographies by Marco Pelle.

Furthermore, for this Milanese event the Gaga Symphony Orchestra has a truly unique surprise for everyone present: the famous singer Chiara Galiazzo will play an exclusive version of her brand new single Pioggia viola, exceptionally accompanied live by the symphony orchestra.

Dancers in Concert is under the Patronage of the Council of Milan.

Thanks to the Main Sponsor Valigeria Roncato, the Technical Partner Stone Project and the Media Partner Classica HD.
